YACHT ROCK LEGENDS RETURN TO GOLDEN NUGGET ATLANTIC CITY

WHAT: Smooth never goes out of style! Yacht Rock Legends are making their way to Golden Nugget Atlantic City on Saturday, August 6 featuring four artists, who are Grammy winners and nominees, the singers of multiple number one hits and have resurrected a genre of music that dominated the charts in the late 70s and 80s.

WHO: Bill Champlin is a two-time Grammy winner and nearly three-decade long member of the legendary group, Chicago. Champlin is the voice behind hit songs like “Hard Habit to Break” and “Look Away,” Chicago's bestselling song of all-time.

Peter Beckett is the lead singer of Player and the voice of one of the anthems of the 1970s, “Baby Come Back.” Beckett also spent 8 years as a member of the Little River Band. He was nominated for a Grammy for his work on the St. Elmo’s Fire soundtrack.

John Ford Coley is one half of the duo that produced four top 10 hits in the late 70s - England Dan and John Ford Coley. Those songs are Yacht Rock staples including the Grammy-nominated “I'd Really Love to See You Tonight” and “We'll Never Have to Say Goodbye Again.”

Elliot Lurie was the founder and lead singer of Looking Glass. Their #1 hit “Brandy (You're a Fine Girl)” put the group on the top in 1972. Lurie went on to head the music department at 20th Century Fox and produced soundtrack albums for several motion pictures.

COST: $29 – $69

WHEN: Saturday, August 6 at 9:00 p.m.

WHERE: The Grand at Golden Nugget
600 Huron Ave
Atlantic City, NJ 08401
