GOLDEN NUGGET ATLANTIC CITY ANNOUNCES SPRING 2016 FLASHBACK FRIDAYS SCHEDULE

Flashback Fridays will celebrate classic rock legends from The Doors to New Jersey's own Jon Bon Jovi

WHAT: This spring, Golden Nugget Atlantic City welcomes a variety of cover bands for fans to enjoy hits from their favorite artists, including Bono's U2.

Golden Nugget's Flashback Fridays spring 2016 series kicks off Friday, April 1 with Echoes of Pink Floyd, a seven-member band celebrating the progressive and psychedelic music of Pink Floyd. Flashback Fridays will celebrate the grand finale of its season on Friday, May 20. The finale will feature Don't Look Back, a band that presents an incredible recreation of the rock band Boston complete with looks, costumes, and sound, before celebrating the start of summer and opening of The Deck, Golden Nugget's bay-front bar and restaurant, on Saturday, May 21.

WHO: Flashback Fridays Acts Include:

- Echoes of Pink Floyd \(April 1\): The seven-member, Michigan-based band pays tribute to the world-renowned, psychedelic-style rock music of Pink Floyd, performing an epic mixture of chart hits and fan classics.
- Rockin' the Paradise \(April 8\): Founded in 2009, Rockin' the Paradise transports audiences to the 70's with spot-on performances of Styx's greatest hits including, "Come Sail Away," "Lorelei," "Renegade," and more. Flawlessly recreating the chemistry, passion, energy, and note-for-note accuracy, Rockin' the Paradise fills venues with crowds that stand, cheer, and sing along.
- 2U \(April 15\): Presenting the "world's second-best U2 show" (after U2 themselves), 2U is a four-person band that presents a precise emulation of the famed Irish band.
- Strange Magic \(April 22\): This nine-piece group of multi-instrumentalists perform all of the sounds used in authentic Electric Light Orchestra shows with live cellos and intricate vocal arrangements. Shows not only re-create the legendary music of the 70's rock band, but also incorporates background imagery, costumes, and film.
- Slippery When Wet \(April 29\): Formed in 2003, Slippery When Wet has taken the exact live arrangements from Bon Jovi's tours from 2000 to 2010 for its two-and-half-hour live shows. Featuring lead singer Jason Morey, who bears an uncanny resemblance to the New Jersey icon, the band was officially authorized by Bon Jovi to perform their highly entertaining show.
- Free Fallin \(May 6\): Paying tribute to Tom Petty, Free Fallin presents a show with the power and passion that went into over 30 years of Tom Petty's best-selling songs. With the instrumentation to duplicate the sound of the Heartbreakers, Free Fallin puts on a show with convincing looks and costumes that audiences won't soon forget.
- Riders on the Storm \(May 13\): This New York City-based band gives audiences young and old the ceremony, celebration, and ritual once found in The Doors' live performances. They've played in historic places The Doors once toured including the Isle of Wight, London, and Amsterdam, in addition to appearances in Connecticut.
- Don't Look Back \(May 20\): Playing all of Boston's greatest hits, Don't Look Back pays tribute to the 70's band's powerful guitar melodies and vocals with a complete creation of its looks, costumes, and
